

SUN PRAIRIE PUBLIC LIBRARY

DISPLAYS/EXHIBIT POLICY

I. Purpose

(A) The Sun Prairie Public Library (SP Library) serves the community as a public forum for sharing ideas and information and encourages educational and cultural exhibits or displays of interest and enlightenment to the community.

(B) The SP Library provides space for displays and exhibits; however, it does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of exhibits or exhibitors.

(C) Religious and political exhibits and displays are permissible for informational purposes. Displays or exhibits which advocate for a single issue, specific candidates/parties and/or referendum/ballot initiatives will not be permitted.

II. Availability of Space

Areas available to the public for displays and exhibits are:

1. Glass exhibit cases in the lobby
2. Glass exhibit case in the children's area for children only
3. Empty walls on either side of the Renk Room and in the West Wing.

III. Scheduling

(A) Displays and exhibits will generally be scheduled on a monthly basis. Arrangements for scheduling may be made through Adult Services (825-0902) or Youth Services (825-0701).

(B) Requests that do not fall clearly within the following guidelines may be authorized by the library director if they are in the best interests of the library.

IV. Guidelines for Display and Exhibits

(A) Display/exhibit materials may not be for sale.

(B) The library staff will not be responsible for setting up or taking down exhibits. Display cases will be locked and remain locked until the date the exhibitor is required to remove the contents.

(C) Library staff will provide assistance with signage and moving glass shelving.

(D) Items may not be taped, stapled, glued or in any other way fastened that would damage display cases or display areas.

V. Responsibility for Display and Exhibit Items

The library assumes no responsibility for damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the library are at the owner's risk. A release must be signed by the exhibitor before any artifact may be placed in the library.
