

SUN PRAIRIE PUBLIC LIBRARY

GIFT POLICY

I. Purpose

- A. The purpose of this policy is to accept gifts in a manner that benefits and enhances the library's mission and is consistent with the library's service goals and objectives.

II. Types of Gifts

- A. Materials that might be considered for use in the library's collection are accepted with the understanding that the library has the authority to dispose of the materials as deemed appropriate, discarding them if conditions warrant, or donating them to the Friends of the Sun Prairie Public Library for resale, or transferring or selling the material to other agencies.
- B. Staff responsible for the evaluation and selection of gift materials will base acceptance on the guidelines set forth in the collection development policy.

III. Terms of Acceptance

- A. The Board is empowered by Wisconsin Statute 43.58 to administer gifts that are accepted. The Library Board empowers the Library Director to manage contributions.
- B. The library will not accept gifts under restricted conditions.
- C. Requests to have materials temporarily housed in the library, i.e., materials that are not outright gifts, will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- D. Contributions of gifts or donations that may involve major costs for installation and/or maintenance, or initial or continuing financial commitments of funds, shall be presented to the Board for approval prior to acceptance.

IV. Appraisal

- A. Appraisal for Tax Purposes:
 - 1. Value appraisal for tax purposes is the responsibility of the donor.
- B. Non-tax Related Appraisals
 - 1. To ensure proper consideration of gifts that appear to have significant value, the library reserves the right to consult an expert on appropriateness and value in advance of acceptance.
- C. The library is not liable for the tax ramifications of a donation.

V. Endowments

- A. The library encourages and accepts endowments, which are managed by The Sun Prairie Public Library Foundation.
